Brené Brown’s groundbreaking research on the impact of shame on our lives led her to giving one of the most popular TED talks of all time. Brene believes that we deepen our own humanity and connectedness to one another when we are aware of the impact of shame, and learn to empathize with others. We [...]

Causes and prevention. In earlier times mildew was considered a major problem in many libraries and so the emphasis on library design was to increase air flow by, for example, leaving openings under the shelves in adjoining floors. In a fire the flames will be drawn floor to floor by the air flow thus ensuring the relatively easy destruction of a whole library rather than a small section.

Two papers given at the Amsterdam conference on the history of archives and records throw some light on aspects of professional ethics. The first of these was by Astrid Eckert, on the denazification of German government archivists after the Second World War. [24] As with other aspects of archivology, looking at a question from a historical point of view is often illuminating.
