The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis is the 1978 English-language translation of a seminar held by Jacques Lacan. The original (French: Le séminaire. Livre XI. Les quatre concepts fondamentaux de la psychanalyse) was published in Paris by Le Seuil in 1973. The Seminar was held at the École Normale Supérieure in Paris between January and June 1964 and is the eleventh in the series of...

Fatiha Guessabi argues that culture is a language in itself Language always carries meanings and references beyond itself: The meanings of a particular language represent the culture of a particular social group. To interact with a language means to do so with the culture which is its reference point. We could not understand a culture [...]

Instruction tip: Typically, the problem that children have with comprehension is not that they lack knowledge in a general sense—the problem is that the knowledge that they do have is not relevant to what they are trying to understand. You can either provide background knowledge relevant to activities (e.g., before telling stories about a zoo, the class could take a field trip to the zoo...)

Teaching Inference. So an important question is, what is the best method of teaching inference to children with language difficulty? Apart from generally improving a student's vocabulary and world knowledge, a good way to improve inference skills is to ask prediction questions. The student could read a passage from a book and then asked what may happen next and why.
