Quilts From A Painters Art
How did the barn quilt trail begin? The first quilt trail was created in Adams County, Ohio, in 2001. Donna Sue Groves wanted to honor her mother, Maxine, and her quilting art by painting a quilt block on their tobacco barn. In talking with friends and neighbors, Donna Sue realized that the project had wide appeal and also could be beneficial to the community as a means to bring tourism and...

The barn quilt idea originated in Adams County, Ohio. Grundy County was the first county in Iowa to paint barn quilts. Kevin Peyton was looking for a project that he could develop for the Herbert Hoover Uncommon Student program, as well as a 4-H leadership project when he learned about the Grundy County barn quilts.

Craft and fine artists use a variety of materials and techniques to create art for sale and exhibition. Craft artists create handmade objects, such as pottery, glassware, textiles, and other objects that are designed to be functional. Fine artists, including painters, sculptors, and illustrators, create original works of art for their aesthetic value, rather than for a functional one.
